The Dakota State Bill Receives a Black Eye in the House—General News.

A Great Meeting of Americans to Indorse the Home Rule Bill.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Fully 10,000 friends of home rule in Ireland were present tonight at the meeting held in behalf of that cause. The platform was occupied by Gov. Oglesby, who was chosen chairman of the meeting, and 300 vice presidents, among whom were judges, congressmen and ministers of all denominations. The decorations were the American and Irish colors blended.

Governor Oglesby opened the meeting and was greeted with great enthusiasm. He spoke briefly and then introduced Alderman Sullivan, who addressed the meeting at length, and in the course of his remarks said: "This meeting is in some respects a novel one, for Irish-Americans at least. While we can find some good words for some Englishmen, we can hardly realize ourselves

HOW STRANGELY OUR VOICES must sound when they formulate acknowledgments to the British premier, who, but a few years ago, tried to govern Ireland by coercion, by buckshot and by endowing, as Wendell Phillips so graphically said, to imperish an idea. Both officers and men in the Anglo-Irish conflict are strangely commingled on the battle field. Who have changed places? Not the Irish. No; they stand where they have stood for centuries, whether in peaceful debate or in war-like struggle, always for Ireland's right to govern Ireland. Sullivan was followed by other representative Irishmen and well known citizens of Chicago, in brief addresses. A number of letters of regret were then read.

SENATOR JOHN SHERMAN WROTE: "I regret that I am not able to be present, on account of official duties here, but you have my hearty sympathy in behalf of home rule for the people of Ireland, which I trust will be secured them by the success of the measure proposed by Mr. Gladstone."

Carlisle, speaker of the house of representatives, telegraphed the following: "I cheerfully consent to the use of my name as one of the vice presidents of your meeting and would be glad to attend in person, if possible. It is a purpose meets my cordial approval."

Mr. W. K. Sullivan, in presenting the resolutions adopted by the meeting, said that the honor conferred upon him was not only on account of his sympathy for the cause, but because he belonged to the religious minority of the Irish people. He regretted that an effort was being made to arouse the religious antagonism which had been so destructive to the Irish people, but he did not believe this RELIGIOUS MINORITY, of which Mr. Parnell was a member, stood in the slightest danger of being opposed by the members of the religious majority.

Mr. Sullivan then presented the resolution, the following of which is the substance:

Ten thousand citizens of Chicago, in mass meeting assembled, with Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, in the chair, unanimously declare that the people of Ireland have their heartfelt sympathy in their endeavor to secure the restoration of the parliament which was taken from them by bribery and fraud. We congratulate the Irish people on their sagacity and for the courage with which their great leader and his brilliant parliamentary associates prosecuted this great and grand struggle.

WE CONDEMN AS UNWORTHY in our age and civilization the unholy attempt to array brother against fellow citizens against one another, because of religious differences. We believe the minority in Ireland have no reason whatever to doubt the perfect good faith of the majority. We assure the great English premier that this crowning act of his political career has won for him the respect and admiration of the whole American people. We congratulate him on the conscience and courage which guided and strengthened him in the face of taunts and insults, to confess the errors of his country and to lead them in a path of reparation and justice. The present parliament may reject his wise counsel, and he may not live to see its fruits enjoyed, but he will always be remembered in his relation to the LIBERTY OF IRELAND as Chatham is remembered in his relation to the liberty of America. We denounce the atrocious calumnies of the Tory press, which charged the Irish-American citizens of Chicago with the responsibility for the recent outrages of the anarchist element. It is the same press which rejoiced when it thought the American union was destroyed. In future its assault upon Ireland or America should be considered for what they are worth by the American people and their press.

The following message was unanimously approved and ordered to be sent to Gladstone:

CHICAGO, May 25.—To Mr. Parnell, House of Commons, London: Chicago's citizens, in mass meeting assembled, request me to ask you to express to Mr.

Gladstone their appreciation of the services rendered by him to liberty and humanity by the introduction of his bill to restore legislative independence to Ireland; for his ability to overcome prejudice and to view fairly and broadly the present unnatural relations of the English and the Irish people; and his manifest desire to undo the wrongs and repair the dissensions which have caused the people of the neighboring island to be living in hatred and warfare; do honor not only to his head and heart, but also to the nation and age of which he is so conspicuous a citizen and leader. They also desire me to express their admiration of yourself and your associates for your tireless efforts in behalf of your country's right to a national parliament. It was these patriotic and brilliant efforts which made Mr. Gladstone's actions possible, and showed the liberal party of England the necessity of undoing the wrong inflicted upon Ireland when it was reduced to provincial vassalage.

RICHARD G. OGLESBY, Governor of Illinois.

Riots in Toronto.

TORONTO, May 25.—For over three hours tonight this city was under mob rule, the result of the street car drivers' strike. Word was received by the Knights of Labor that omnibuses from Kingston for the use of the street railroad strikers would arrive here between 6 and 7 o'clock tonight and a large crowd went to meet them, accompanied by a brass band. On their arrival the omnibuses were driven slowly through the principal streets, the crowd gradually increasing in number until nearly 2,000 persons were following in procession. Every street car met on the route was attacked with bricks and stones, and passengers, drivers and conductors were injured, and the wild uproar was kept up, the police being powerless to do anything. Between thirty and forty street cars were wrecked in this way and are now lying in the company's shops. So far as is ascertained no person was dangerously injured. Had not the Knights of Labor broken up the procession much more serious results would have followed.

Christians in Conference.

The council has no intention of establishing a society or organization on the plan of a union or putting forth a creed. Its aim is by holding public meetings from time to time to make possible for a full and frank discussion of subjects in which the Christians of America are interested, including those ecclesiastical questions upon which Christians differ.

Kyllias, a married man and proprietor of a drug store, has been on intimate terms with the daughter of William Bode. Several days ago the daughter disappeared and today her mother went to Kyllias' drug store and asked him where the girl was. He replied: "It's none of your d-d business where the girl is." This evening Bode armed himself with a revolver and walked down to the drug store of Kyllias, who was standing out on the sidewalk. He saw him and walked inside. Bode approached, and, as Kyllias was walking to the back of the store he shot him dead. The murderer immediately surrendered himself.

Fighting for Freedom.

LONDON, May 25.—Some members of the Independent Labor party, stationed at Aldershot, attended a conservative meeting today, at which some of the orators savagely denounced home rule and described the Irish people as being unfit for self-government. The fusiliers became enraged at the speakers and attacked them and their supporters. The police were called in to protect the speakers and a fight ensued between them and the Irish soldiers. Comrades of the fusiliers went to their assistance and the police were badly whipped and driven away. They secured reinforcements, and returning suppressed the rioting and arrested five soldiers.
